Minor Injuries Reported In Salem; Treated At Hospital

Eleven persons, five of them airplane victims, are dead today as the result of violent accidents in the Buckeye state during the week-end. Ideal "Indian summer" weather sent thousands of motorists to the highways and many aviators aloft.

Traffic accidents took a toll of six lives and resulted in three persons being injured in northern Ohio over the week-end.

John J. Krupp, 30, of Sandusky, was instantly killed and E. J. Watkins, also of Sandusky, was perhaps fatally injured early yesterday when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into a bridge abutment near Bellevue.

L. P. Sammon, 45, music instructor, was killed in Canton when his automobile was struck by an east-bound Pennsylvania passenger train.

Frank Bacurin, 74, was killed in Cleveland when he stepped into the path of an automobile while crossing the street.

William Watters, 40, of Cleveland, was killed by an automobile which struck him as he was working near the railway car barns there.

Mrs. W. B. Ainsworth, 45, of Medina, was killed Sunday as she was returning home after having taken her daughter back to Lake Erie college at Painesville. She was struck by an automobile while returning to her car with a basket of fruit which she had purchased at a stand near Mentor.

In Akron, 7-year-old Helen Garlich was killed when the roadster in which she was riding collided with a sedan and turned over. Two other persons were injured in Akron's traffic accidents. Marjorie Nutter, 7, received a possible fractured skull when she was struck down while crossing the street, and Robert Rodger, 4, received a broken leg when he was run down by an automobile.

Among the highway accidents victims over the weekend were Earl Guffey, of Canton, who sustained lacerations on the face and nose in an accident Saturday afternoon and was at Salem City hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Albert Randolph, Salem, in an accident Sunday afternoon was cut on the forehead. She was at City hospital for treatment.

SNOOK COUNSEL TO FILE APPEAL

Legal Fight To Save Former Ohio State Professor's Life May Start Today In Columbus

Columbus, Oct. 28.—The legal fight to save Dr. James Howard Snook from the electric chair, in which he has been sentenced to die Nov. 29, for the brutal slaying of Miss Theora Hix, is to be started today, according to E. O. Ricketts, the convicted murderer's attorney.

The lawyer said he would file a petition-in-error with the Franklin county common pleas court asking for a new trial for the now doomed ex-college professor who admittedly slew Miss Hix, then a college co-ed.

County Prosecutor John J. Chester's "brutal antics" in making the closing address to the jury, in which the youthful state's attorney re-enacted the murder scene, will be contested. Ricketts declared, and the lawyer also charged "bias" on the part of Judge Henry L. Scarlett, who presided at what turned out to be one of the most sordid trials ever heard in an American courtroom.

Franksters Given Police Warning

A warning was issued by Police Chief T. W. Thompson today against participating in pre-Halloween activities which result in damage to property or persons.

With the arrest of seven Salem youths last week as a result of numerous complaints received by police that they were destroying and damaging property the number of complaints have decreased considerably. Thompson reported but he issues the warning to guard against further vandalism.

The entire police force has received orders to make arrests immediately in case of further depredations.

FIVE OHIOANS KILLED WHEN PLANES CRASH

Parachute Jumper Loses Life When "Chute" Fails to Open

FOUR DIE IN TWO ACCIDENTS

Controls Jammed Claim Flier Who Was Hurt In Wreck

Five Ohioans are dead today as the result of two airplane accidents and an attempted parachute jump yesterday.

Lester Patton, 29, and Clarence Rice, 31, were killed and Wallace Matz, 24, the pilot, was injured when the trio's plane crashed near Jerusalem in Monroe county. One of the passengers is believed to have "frozen" the controls by accidentally pressing his feet on the pedals. The craft was of the double control type. It went into a spin at 500 feet and hit some telephone wires. It was completely wrecked.

While his mother looked on, Carl Jennewein, 23, of Hamilton, was killed near that city in making a parachute jump from an airplane which was flying at the height of 2,000 feet. The parachute failed to open.

Two negroes, Reuben Floyd, 35, of Hamilton and A. J. Miller, 19, of Middletown, were also killed at Hamilton when the ship which they had paid to take a ride in, crashed from an altitude of 500 feet. The pilot of the ship, Wallace Mott, was seriously hurt. He said the controls locked.

SEARCH FOR MEN HELD HOPELESS

Two Missing Fishermen Believed Dead By Searchers

Toledo, O., Oct. 28.—Searchers today continued their hunt over Lake Erie for two fishermen, George Buck and Will Myers, who have been missing since Friday afternoon while enroute from Bay Point to Toledo. They are believed dead.

Reluctantly, the searchers admitted they were apparently conducting a hopeless hunt.

The keeper of the light off Point Place reported having seen a fire on the Lake about 5 o'clock Friday evening. The men would have passed the Point Place light about that time.

Friends of the men said that they had been experiencing engine trouble with their 30-foot boat, and this led to the supposition that there was an explosion aboard their craft and that Buck and Myers were either killed in it or drowned when they were forced to take to the water.

The search continues, however, and there is a hope of finding the bodies, if not the men alive.

SENATOR FACING EXPULSION FROM FINANCE GROUP

Dill Proposes Bingham Be Removed From Important Post

Washington, Oct. 28.—The congressional lobby investigation entered its third week today with the senate privately discussing the advisability of administering a reprimand to Senator Hiram Bingham of Connecticut, for his action in employing a paid manufacturer's lobbyist as his secretary while the new tariff bill was being drafted.

A resolution of censure against Bingham was drawn by Senator Norris of Nebraska, insurgent leader, who kept it in his desk while the Connecticut senator's action was denounced following a report from lobby investigating committee. There was a general feeling that the investigating committee should have recommended some punitive action for Bingham. While many senators urged some expression from the senate, repudiating Bingham's act, there appeared to be no leader of the movement.

Senator Dill of Washington, may step into the breach as he declared Bingham should be expelled from membership on the senate finance committee. No such punishment ever has been meted out to a senator and it would require a majority vote of the senate to carry it into effect.

Dill based his suggested punishment on the fact that Bingham had taken Charles L. Ryanson, the paid lobbyist, into that committee's sessions as his secretary while rates were being fixed. Other members of the committee have been denied knowing Ryanson's connections at the time.

SEVEN PERSONS LOSE LIVES IN AIRWAY WRECK

British Plane Sinks As Towing Lines Part During Storm

70 - MILE GALE DIRECT CAUSE

Flier Lands In Rough Sea When Winds Grow Strong

London, Oct. 28.—The gulf of Genoa was being raged by air and sea craft today for the bodies of four of the seven persons who were drowned when the British imperial airways flying boat City of Rome sank in a furious gale while being towed to safety.

Only three bodies have been recovered so far, according to reports received today from Genoa. Of the seven victims, four, including one woman, were passengers. The other three comprised the airliner's crew.

The plane, an all-metal trimotored affair, was in the Indian air mail service. It was making the Alexandria to Genoa lap of its westward flight when the tragedy occurred.

Running into a terrific 70 mile an hour gale about ten miles south of Spezia in the Gulf of Genoa, the 27-year-old pilot, L. S. Birt, a former royal air force flier, realized that a forced landing was necessary.

Wireless For Help.
He ordered wireless operator Stone to send out calls for help and made a good landing on the furious sea. Help came in the form of the little 400 ton Italian steamer Fungolia. It was impossible to transfer those aboard the plane to the steamer because of the high seas so three tow lines were attached.

After towing the plane for some time, the captain of the Italian ship reported the two lines suddenly snapped. He scoured the vicinity in the darkness but found no vestige of the plane so made for Spezia at top speed. A destroyer and other craft immediately were dispatched but no sign of the plane was found. Later the pilot's body was washed up on the shore at Via Reggio, according to reports.

The passengers aboard the plane were a Miss Bromford, Messrs. Robins, Ritchie and Turning, the last a British customs official returning to England after a vacation at Naples. The third member of the crew was Pembroke, the engineer.

UNPAID TAXES CAUSE ACTION

Prosecutor Will Try To Clean Up Many Cases

Lisbon, Oct. 28.—Following the receipt from the office of State Auditor Joseph T. Tracy of a list of real estate in Columbiana county upon which taxes are delinquent, 93 foreclosure petitions have been filed with Clerk of Courts John Noble and 235 others will be filed as soon as the petitions can be prepared.

Over 200 such cases were filed several years ago, but only a few of these have been disposed of by the property either being sold at sheriff's sale or the tax liquidated after suit was filed.

It is the intent of Prosecuting Attorney John E. Bauknecht to not only clear away all of these old cases, but to press the prosecution and sale of the property referred to in all of the 93 new petitions.

Counting these 93 tax foreclosure petitions, 115 new petitions were filed in common pleas court within 24 hours, a new high record for the Columbiana court.

Odd Fellows At Meeting In Niles

A number of Salem Odd Fellows were in Niles Saturday evening to attend the ceremonies of the dedication of a new hall, one of the highest honors in Odd Fellowship, in that city.

A feature of the affair was a musical program presented by the boys and girls orchestra from the Springfield home, given preceding the dedication.

WELL FIELDS PRESENT DIFFICULT PROBLEM IN SALEM WATER SUPPLY

City Situated At Top Of Watershed, Drainage Also a Factor; State Rules System Of Purification Be Installed

(Editor's Note: This is the third of a series of articles dealing with the proposed Butler water project, which would provide a "soft water system" for Salem. The articles are written by City Engineer F. S. Barckhoff at the request of civic clubs and business groups in Salem. The Salem News was requested, by the same organizations, to publish these articles in order to present Salem voters with a complete knowledge of the proposal. A bond issue will be on ballots at November elections.)

BY F. S. BARCKHOFF
I promised to explain, today, to what extent our present water supply can be extended and to what extent we can depend on the Butler supply.

Salem has received the opinions of four widely known engineers in the past few years on the question of the sufficiency of our well water to meet our demand. Each of the four have predicted that the well supply would be insufficient. The data which has been presented to support their opinions has never been sufficient, in my opinion. It is undisputably true that our well supply has kept pace with our demands up to the present time. As our demand for water has increased, we have increased the number of well fields.

We have at present four fields and there is nothing to prohibit us from opening up more fields as our demand increases.

Our well fields present a difficult problem, however, in that they are slow producers; that is, they yield the water slowly. I do not believe it will prove economical to pump any of our fields at a rate of over 200 gallons per minute.

This means that we must have many fields in operation. Another difficulty that confronts us is that some of our well fields lie in a position to receive drainage from the city. Protection from human wastes is necessary. At present—under our control—our only protection is chlorine. It is not always possible to open up the well fields any place you wish when you do not have a purification plant.

State Department Rules
Recently, we made an investigation of the Smith wells. This field would produce probably at about the same rate as our other fields. However, this is what happened.

Dr. T. T. Church took up the question of using the water from the Smith field with the state department of health, and he informs me that we cannot use this water, because of the fact that the wells lie in a position to receive the drainage from a great part of the town. If we had a purification plant, such as would be used in connection with a surface supply, there would be no reason why we could not use the Smith field.

It is my intent in these letters to talk about one thing at a time. We will therefore leave the question of purification and filtration to a later time, and turn to the proposed Butler water supply.

All water which we receive, at some time falls as rain. The amount of water which we can depend upon can be determined only by past rainfall records. The records which we have available for this territory date back to 1875. The number of inches of rainfall for each year has been computed, the range being from 26 inches fall in the lowest.

Leontina, Oct. 28.—Funeral service for George Johnson, 48, who was instantly killed when struck by a truck, at 8:30 p. m. Friday while walking on the Columbiana-New Waterford rd. was held Monday afternoon in the Methodist church, in charge of Rev. Cope, the pastor.

Center Township Faces School Levy

An additional three mill levy for school purposes is asked to be approved at the November election by the boards of education of Center township school district; Wayne township school district; and the Columbiana village school district.

The levy is outside the 15 mill limitation. In each of the school districts the additional three mill levy is a matter of record, and its approval by the electors at the next general election will mean no increase in the tax levy of these independent districts.

PANTAGES FACES TERM IN PRISON; CLAIMED GUILTY

Showman Attacked Dancer, Is Jury's Verdict; 1 to 50 Years

Los Angeles, Oct. 28.—Found guilty of criminally assaulting 17-year-old Eunice Pringle, Alexander Pantages today faces a prison term in San Quentin penitentiary from one to 50 years.

The jury of seven women and five men returned the verdict sealing the millionaire theater magnate's fate last night after being out a trifle more than 53 hours.

The jury members signalled the court bailiff at 9:20 p. m. that a verdict had been reached. Ten minutes after they had filed into the jury box they pronounced Pantages guilty of an assault on the girl dancer who applied to him for a booking on his vaudeville circuit.

Their verdict contained no compromise. It was within the jury's province to determine whether Pantages' punishment should be not more than one year in county jail or up to a half century behind San Quentin bars. They decreed the limit.

One gesture of leniency was made. In their formal written verdict they added one extra line, a recommendation for clemency. But the law takes no cognizance of this.

When Judge Charles Fricke sentenced Pantages next Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock, he must sentence him to the "prison term set by statute." That statute reads, without any compromise, "not more than 50 years in state prison."

Pantages' attorney will file a motion for a new trial, which will act as automatic stay of sentence until the motion issued at some later date which the court will set.

DRUGGIST HELD UP BY THUGS

Man Rendered Unconscious By Blow On Head During Robbery; Get $476

Columbus, Oct. 28.—Authorities are today searching for three bandits who last night robbed W. H. North, proprietor of the Crystal Drug Company, of $476, after knocking him unconscious.

In his report to police North said one man entered the store by the side door, and drawing a gun, told him "to put 'em up" but before he could act a second person hit him on the head rendering him incapable of action.

After pilfering his pockets and removing a money bag that was under the counter, the two men left the store and entered a machine which was waiting in front of the store for them which was driven by a third bandit.

North was taken to the hospital by a customer who found him lying on the floor. A reward is to be offered for the apprehension of the holdup men.

WORKER FOUND DEAD IN LANE NEAR SEBRING

Three Shots Bring Death To Nenny Prinatori Sunday Eve.

POLICE BELIEVE MAN AMBUSHED

Victim Was On Parole From Ohio Penitentiary When Slain

Alliance, Oct. 28.—Alliance and Sebring police and Mahoning county authorities are conducting an extensive investigation into the murder of Denny Prinatori, 32, whose body was found lying in a lane which leads to a plant of the Alliance Brick company from the Alliance-Sebring road.

The body was found by James Brush and Ed Kraft as they were driving to the plant at 6:40 Sunday night. When it was ascertained that Prinatori was dead the men notified Marshall Charles Bumgarner of Sebring, who in turn notified Alliance police and Sheriff Adam Stone of Mahoning county.

Police and a sheriff's posse searched the vicinity but were unable to find trace of the slayer.

Shot In Back
Prinatori was shot in the back three times by a gun, believed to be a .22 caliber automatic pistol. Death was instantaneous. The shots were fired from some distance as no powder burns were visible on the man's clothing. Police believe he was ambushed.

On Aug. 4, 1927, Prinatori with James Brush and Clarence Wiggins were arrested on charges of operating a still, following a raid in Marlboro. Prinatori was sentenced to the Ohio state penitentiary and paroled. He then resumed work with the firm which employed him prior to his stay in the Ohio prison. His parole was practically ended.

Brush, one of the men who found Prinatori's body, was arrested at the same time in the Marlboro raid. In the dead man's pocket it was found a slip of paper bearing the address, 3002 Egin st., Lorain, O. Lorain police state the address does not exist in that city.

As far as can be ascertained, Prinatori had no relatives. He resided at a boarding house near the plant where he was employed and near where he met his death.

SOLDIER KILLED IN STREET FIGHT

Government May Quiz Death of Man In Cincinnati

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 28.—A brawl in front of a settlement mission here today had ended in the death of one soldier, the arrest of two others and the holding of a woman for questioning.

It appeared possible that the United States government officials would conduct the investigation. The dead man is John Noble, 21, a member of Company E, tenth infantry, Fort Thomas, Kentucky, who was in civilian clothes at the time.

According to Patrolman Lester Meyer, Noble struck another man and when he attempted to question the soldier, the latter pulled a gun. Meyer shot him three times and the wounds caused his death.

Two other soldiers, Joseph Barnes, 24, and Thomas Hatfield, 22, who were Noble's companions, were arrested. They were attired in the regular army uniform.

Mrs. Gertie Johnson, 28, the wife of a soldier who had disappeared recently, was taken into custody when it was alleged that the argument which led to the street brawl started over her.

Army officials at Fort Thomas ordered Cincinnati police to arrest all soldiers found in Cincinnati at the time and return them to Fort Thomas. The officials are expected here today to conduct a probe.

WE NEED EQUITY

Col. Leonard P. Ayres, internationally known economist and outstanding Cleveland, holds that taxation without classification is tyranny, as much so to the citizen of Ohio in this year of 1929 as was taxation without representation for the colonists before the revolution.

"In these days, and for us, the tyranny from which we suffer is imposed upon us by the state constitution, which has decreed for nearly 80 years that all property shall be taxed at a uniform rate," he remarks. "The way to overcome this tyranny is for each voter to cast his ballot in favor of the proposed amendment to the constitution, thus making it possible for the legislature to distribute the burden so that industry may survive and so that hidden intangibles may be properly declared for assessment."

The Uniform Rule has never operated uniformly nor justly in Ohio and never can be made to do so. It requires, for instance, that "credits" shall be taxed. The legislature years ago enacted a law that allows the deduction of debts from credits, but not from any other kind of property. This destroys uniformity as to the taxation of property for the mortgaged home owner cannot deduct the debt on his home from the assessed value of his real estate.

The Uniform Rule requires that all stocks shall be taxed. The legislature has set aside this rule by allowing about seven billions of domestic stocks to be free from taxation. This is fair, though not constitutional, for the taxation of domestic stocks would be only another form of double taxation. If a suit were brought in the United States courts all domestic stocks of Ohio would be placed on the tax duplicates and industrial Ohio put out of business.

The Uniform Rule cannot be enforced in respect to the listing of intangible property at the full rate of taxation. No legislature will allow taxing officials to enter financial institutions to assess intangibles at the full rate because a strict administration of the Uniform Rule would close these institutions and would drive owners of these intangibles into investing in tax exempt securities, locating their property outside the state, or hiding it.

Under Uniform Rule only a little more than 7 per cent of the taxes of Ohio are paid by intangible property. The bulk of this has been paid by banks, corporations and widows and orphans whose estates are in the process of administration. Prior to the recent federal court decision, which set aside the Uniform Rule as far as banks are concerned, they paid a fourth of the intangible tax of Ohio. This decision reduces the intangible tax return from seven to five per cent of the total. The ordinary individual does not return his intangibles because of the confiscation of his income, because he finds it more profitable to invest in tax-free securities or because he has established a trust outside the state.

Changes in the form of wealth, the complexities of modern civilization, are steadily making the Uniform Rule more difficult of operation. Proof of this lies in the fact that in the past 28 years 21 states have found it advantageous to desert the Uniform Rule. Only 15 states still have it in their constitutions and in none of these is it strictly enforced for all have superimposed special taxes.

The purposes of the Tax Limit Amendment, for which Ohio is expected to vote Yes, is basically to correct the inequalities of present taxation and to make available tax funds that are not now obtainable.

The treasury department has taken action to replenish the whisky stock for medicinal purposes with 1,400,000 gallons of bourbon annually, which will naturally be taken by some as an invitation to become "ailing" once more.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 20 years, and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, just a healing, soothing vegetable laxative safe and pleasant.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They help cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you should find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets. Thousands take them every night to keep right. Try them. 15c, 30c, 60c.

STREET DIN OFTEN A CAUSE OF "NERVES"

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
(United States Senator from New York)

You need not be told by an eminent scientist that noises are disagreeable. They keep us awake at night and make us nervous in the daytime.

But has it ever occurred to you that noises can actually retard growth? This is a new idea, isn't it?

At a recent meeting in Boston of the National Home Economics association, a remarkable address was made by Dr. Donald A. Laird, of Colgate university. He is director of the psychological laboratory in that institution and for a long time has been studying the effects of noises on white rats.

Dr. Laird believes that the noises of American cities actually stunt the growth. Let me quote his statement: "For more than a year we have been following through the effects of city noises on white rats, yielding results which it would take about 39 years' observations upon humans to obtain. Rather startling effects have been recorded."

"For instance the rats kept in relative quiet eat two or three per cent more food than their brothers and sisters that are kept under the electrically duplicated city noises; but with only this small advantage in appetite, as shown by food consumption, the rats kept under the quiet conditions grow somewhat around 10 per cent more rapidly."

"These scientifically controlled observations on animals are paralleled and confirmed by measurements of city and country children, which reveal almost invariably a greater rate of growth among the country boys and girls."

Of course it will take a lot of confirmatory work to prove that Dr. Laird is right. It would be easy to point out objections to his conclusions. For instance there may be those who will dispute his final statement that "measurements of city and country children reveal almost invariably a greater rate of growth among the country boys and girls."

But setting aside such objections, there can be no doubt that the noises of a city have created a serious public health problem. This troubled me all the time I was commissioner of health of the city of New York. In that great community of six millions of active persons, to say nothing of the millions of autos and trucks there is bound to be a clatter and din that are almost deafening.

If these noises actually impair the appetite, there can be no doubt that growth would be unfavorably affected. But even though growth is not affected, broken rest and irrita-ed nervous systems are bad for the human race. Every city should give heed to the problem of noise. There are so many devices for deadening sound that a systematic and earnest campaign would result in great improvement.

Needless Pain!

The man who wouldn't drive his motorcar half a mile when it's out of order, will often drive his brain all day with a head that's throbbing.

Such punishment isn't very good for one's nerves! It's unwise, and it's unnecessary. A tablet or two of Bayer Aspirin will relieve a headache every time. So, remember this accepted antidote for pain, and spare yourself a lot of needless suffering. Read the proven directions and you'll discover many valuable uses for these tablets. For headaches; to check colds. To ease a sore throat and reduce the infection. For relieving neuralgia, neuritis, rheumatic pain.

People used to wonder if Bayer Aspirin was harmful. The doctors answered that question years ago. It is not. Some folks still wonder if it really does relieve pain. That's settled! For millions of men and women have found it does. To cure the cause of any pain you must consult your doctor; but you may always turn to Bayer Aspirin for immediate relief.

The Stars Say —

FOR TUESDAY, OCTOBER 29

Although the lunar transit to Neptune promises assistance to the affairs of large corporations and to new undertakings generally yet the difficult position of Saturn portends delays, obstacles and disappointments. Also there is a threat of treachery in writings and the finances are subject to small losses.

Those whose birthday it is may have some promising conditions in new ventures, during the year but also there may be stubborn obstacles to overcome with resolution and courage. Safeguard the finances against small losses and leave no loophole for deceit or trickery in writings. A child born on this day may have unusual equipment for success in life but it may encounter many obstacles which must be routed by determination, application and fertility.

ALIMONY ASKED

WITH DIVORCE

One Request In Court

Is Set Aside By

Judge Lones

Lisbon, Oct. 28.—An alimony action has been filed in common pleas court by Olive L. McKinnon against Samuel J. McKinnon of East Liverpool, with Brookes & Thompson representing the plaintiff.
The petition shows that the couple were married July 12, 1926, and have no children.
The petition states that McKinnon is a pottery worker and receives $200 monthly. A hearing on the order for temporary alimony will be held before Judge W. F. Lones Nov. 1.
The court has set aside its order of Oct. 23, dismissing the divorce action filed by Maudie K. Gleich against her husband, Frank A. Gleich, and the case has been reinstated on the court calendar.
Through his counsel, W. A. O'Grady of Wellsville, Pearl James has filed a divorce action against his wife, Leora James, residing on Nevada st., Wellsville. The couple who were married March 5, last are "thrust issue," according to the petition, and which charges the defendant with keeping company with other men.
The decree entered in the divorce action filed by Frank Cascio against his wife, Elizabeth Cascio, March 14, 1919, has been modified by the court and a journal entry has been approved that compels the plaintiff to pay his wife $5 weekly for the support of a minor child.

File Damage Action
Three suits wherein a total of $71,200 damages is sought have been filed in court against the Rosenberg Dairy Co., of Wellsville, and all being the result of an automobile wreck on the East Liverpool-Midland interstate highway one and one-half miles west of Midland at 7:30 o'clock the evening of Aug. 12 last.

The petition filed by William Bowers declares that his son, Frank Bowers, aged 32 years was driving a pleasure car owned by the former east toward Midland when a truck owned by the defendant was being driven westward on the wrong side of the road and crashed into the pleasure car, wrecking it. Bowers asks $1,200 damages.

Frank Bowers, the driver of the car was injured in the wreck, and in his petition he seeks $35,000 damages.
Madison Culver, aged 43, a guest in the car driven by Frank Bowers was also injured in the same wreck, and he was compelled to spend $180 for medical attention. Culver has also sued the Wellsville company for $35,000 damages. All of the petitions were filed for the plaintiffs by Attorney G. Jay Clark of East Liverpool.

WATER SUPPLY

year to 51 inches in the heaviest rainfall year. This is taken from averages at stations near Salem. The run-off from this rainfall, or the amount of water we could catch in the proposed reservoir lake is the amount that falls less the amount of evaporation and leakage by infiltration into the ground. The formula which has been used is very conservative. It fixes the run-off, or the amount which we could retard in the lake, at approximately one half, or less, of the rainfall.

As I stated in a past letter, the maximum amount of water we expect to obtain from this lake is 2.5 million gallons per day, three times the amount the pumping station was pumping when this survey was made.

The lake, however, has been designed to hold a supply that will yield three million gallons per day. This makes it possible to let out 500,000 gallons a day in dry weather, an amount more than flows down the creek during dry weather. This is provided to protect the city against claims from owners down stream that may feel they have been deprived of water.

Large Safety Factor

It is not my intention to tire you with a lot of figures. However, a few will give you an idea of the margin of safety which we would have in this reservoir. The entire drainage area which would be caught amounts to 54 square miles. One inch of rainfall over this area would amount to about 92 million gallons. If we lose one-half by evaporation, etc., we receive in the lake 46 million gallons.

It will take about 28 inches of rainfall to fill the lake in a very wet year; at a very dry year, possibly as much as 32 to 35 inches on account of increased evaporation, etc.

The lake will hold, when full, 1.3 billion gallons with 1.16 billion gallons available for use, which would flow to the pumping station by gravity. It would require a year of average rainfall to fill the lake.

The lake when full would hold more water than we would require if we were taking out three million gallons per day for an entire year. Or, to put it another way, the lake would hold more water than we would use for three years at our present rate of consumption. In other words, we would have from 1 to 3 years' supply all ways available.

The lake area will be 384 acres. The maximum depth 26 feet. The average depth 10 feet. A road built around the lake would be about 6 miles long. From tip to tip of the lake, north and south, would be about two miles. Its greatest width would be about one mile.

Property Owned

At the present time, every bit of the needed property excepting a two acre tract, is under option at a reasonable figure. I have gone into the description of the proposed lake to a large extent, because I understand that after some of our people viewed the stream, they wondered where the water was coming from. If there were a large continuous stream, we would not have to build the dam to catch the heavy run-offs. We would simply put out suction pipe in the stream, purify the water and save the cost of the land and dam.

Salem is unfortunately situated in that it is at the top of a divide and all the streams run away from us. I shall endeavor to take up in the next issue, softening and purification in a modern water plant, and if space permits, give you some of the benefits of soft water.

Restless Children

Children will fret, often for no apparent reason. But there's always one sure way to comfort a restless, fretful child. Castoria! Harmless as the recipe on the wrapper; mild and bland as it tastes. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than some powerful medicine that is meant for the stronger systems of adults.

That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given the tiniest infant—as often as there is any need. In cases of colic, diarrhea, or similar disturbance, it is invaluable. But it has everyday uses all mothers should understand. A coated tongue calls for a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed to set everything to rights. Genuine Castoria has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper. Doctors prescribe it.

Stonemen Register Unimpressive 20-0 Victory Over Lisbon

Blue and White Stages Great Aerial Battle Against Salem Squad

Lisbon High's flashy pisker, Gladia, was rated as one of the outstanding players developed at the seat of Columbian county in a decade, displayed an entirely unexpected aerial offensive, outplayed Salem High's defeated grid machine for at least one-half of the 48 minutes of play but succumbed to the superior ne-smashing onslaught of the Red and Black by a 20-0 score at Lisbon Saturday afternoon.

Gloom pervades the atmosphere of the headquarters of Salem High gridders today as a result of the conflict for it was undoubtedly the worst showing of the season by the Stonemen. With the principal contest of the Red and Black schedule, that with South High of Youngstown coming this Friday night, the outlook for the undefeated record for which the Salem combine aspires is at its lowest point of the year.

It was Salem's sixth consecutive victory of the season.

Lisbon Passing Features

There was only one real feature to the game for it was a long, drawn-out affair with few thrills. This single feature was provided through the spectacular pass attack of Coach Blackwell's youths which brought the ball into Salem's territory an even half dozen times. Five of these six times Lisbon was well within Salem's 20-yd line and in four of the occasions had the ball on the Red and Black's five-yd line.

This forward pass, it might be said was all that Lisbon had, but it was almost sufficient to hand Salem its first trimming of the season, for Blackwell's team gained a total of 187 yards through it. A total of 135 yards of the grand total was gained in the second quarter when Lisbon amassed six first downs and kept Salem entirely on the defensive.

The only three times in which Salem flashed any strength whatever on offense resulted in the three touchdowns. Two of these came in the first quarter and the final in the third. All through the remainder of the game Lisbon held the edge. Salem showed plenty of power on defense when Lisbon brought the ball within its goal on passes, bracing on every occasion to prevent the crossing of its goal line. This strong defense in emergencies was probably the only important event of the game as far as Salem is concerned.

Ten first downs were made by Salem in the first quarter, Salem's backs hammering the Lisbon line for repeated gains throughout the period. Sammy Drakulich scored the first touchdown on a crossback through left tackle, Glenn Whintry diving over for the second. Bill Smith scored the extra point on the second touchdown. Whintry's dropkick failing on the first.

Lisbon started its air attack in the middle of the second quarter, Lewis heaving the spiral to the ends and fellow-backs with accuracy. Passes took the ball to Salem's 25 from where another was thrown to Cornell who ran 15 yards to Salem's 10. Cornell fumbled the ball when tackled, Ed Beck flopping on the spiral, saving a possible score. Beck punted out of danger with a 65-yd heave to McClintock took the ball to the two-yd line as the gun sounded for the end of the half.

Lisbon Threatens Again

The third quarter was almost a repetition of the second at the start, Lisbon carrying the ball to Salem's 4-yd line on passes. There the Salem line braced, Greenisen throwing Lewis for 20 yard losses on two plays while Glenn Whintry threw Williams for an eight-yard loss on the last down. Beck punted out of danger but Lisbon was forced to punt back when the kick receiver was penalized 24 yards for crawling. Sammy Drakulich ran the punt back to his own 40 and there Salem started a march which ended in Whintry's crossing Lisbon's goal with the third score of the game. Beck added the extra point.

Passes took the ball to Salem's 10-yd line as the quarter ended, following the kick-off. There the Salem line again proved impregnable and the county seat backfield was thrown backwards for 18 yards and was forced to give up the ball on downs. After Beck punted Blackwell's men started another barrage of complete passes carrying the pisker to the Stonemen's 15 but there

Glenn Whintry halted the excursion by intercepting a pass.

It was the first time this season Salem had to cope with a team that relied mainly on passes for an offensive attack and the team received considerable education from it. Had Lisbon attempted a pass when in Salem's territory on those many occasions it might have scored but attempts were made to batter the line and no team has yet done this successfully to any extent. The fumble in the first quarter and the sudden end of the half were two bad breaks, received by the county seaters which helped the visitors considerably.

The game brought out a horde of glaring weaknesses in Salem's play despite the fact that alibi could be found in the fact that at no time did Stone work his best team. Work all this week will be concentrated on elimination of these weaknesses for the South tilt.

Lisbon Team Given Honors In Defeat

Though defeated by a decisive margin of three touchdowns, high honors are due Coach Blackwell's gritty Lisbon High eleven which Saturday made the strong Salem High combine display its worst brand of football of the season.

Blackwell's lads displayed a flashing aerial attack that could not be denied in the center of the field and which brought out the great need of an aerial defense in the Red and Black squad.

It might not have been the best team in Lisbon's history but it was the greatest passing team seen in Columbian county grid competition in years. In face of the county seat combine's passing onslaught the Salem team was entirely helpless.

Time for the Truth about WASHING MACHINES

An Unfitted "Gold Bond Guarantee"

Too many half-truths and untruths about washing machines have been advertised in recent years. For instance, the claim that clothes can be kept white week after week without soaking and boiling them, and by running them through only ONE suds. Did our grandmothers put dirty clothes in scalding water? The truth is that no washing machine ever made can keep clothes PERMANENTLY free from "that all-over grayish tinge" and that "harsh feel" except by (1) the use of "two successive suds" or (2) by soaking and boiling the clothes, or (3) by the use of caustics or bleaches. Of these three methods, only one is really satisfactory — namely, the "two successive suds" method which is advocated by Good Housekeeping Institute and endorsed by Dexter's Fastwin. Yes, we have single washers! Who wants one after using the New Improved Fastwin? Can you sell a single washer with ironing machine included, for less than $100. Price Without Sacrifice. For women who are willing to do the extra work which is necessary with any single-tub washer, in order to keep clothes free from grayness, the Dexter Company builds the Dexter Speedex. Builders of fine washers for more than a quarter century. The Dexter Company originated the double-tub type of washer 10 years ago, and the first one ever made is still in weekly use.

"NOAH'S ARK"

"Noah's Ark" heralded as having been "made to top any picture ever made," comes to the State theater tonight for a run of four days. The stupendous production includes more than ten thousand characters. Sets covering more than a square mile were used in the making—a period of three years.

Darryl Francis Zanuck wrote the story and Michael Curtiz, internationally famed as the producer of spectacles of vast proportions, directed. Dolores Costello is starred with George O'Brien. Other prominent members of the cast are Noah Beery, Louise Fazenda, Guinn "Big Boy" Williams, Nigel de Bruin, Anders Randolf, Armand Kaliz, Myrna Loy, William V. Mong, Malcolm Waite, Noble Johnson Otto Hoffman and Joe Bonomo.

"Noah's Ark" mighty in conception, portrays life at the ends of the rainbow span of fifty centuries. The lovers, whose glamorous personalities survive the soul-stirring days of the World War, are transported back across the centuries, to the iniquitous days preceding the flood.

Vitaphone is vindicated as never before by the magnificent sweep of the story—by the manifold sounds of tumult—war—slavery—flood—terror—birth—and by the human voice, and never has quite so melodiously interpretative, an accompaniment been provided as that which follows the ever changing scenes of "Noah's Ark."

Dolores Costello and George O'Brien play the parts of the lovers. Paul McAllister is the patriarch, Noah—and all the actors are perfectly cast.

The theme of the play is the changelessness of the heart of humanity—whether in the modern life that we know—or in the traditional past. Tremendous as is the idea of the play, the human story which runs through it is compelling, intimate and tender.

"PLEASURE CRAZED"

"Pleasure Crazed" opens tonight at the Royal theater. Included with its dialogue quality, it possesses a smart story, handled with plenty of interesting advanced ideas which place it in a position of that as a pioneer in the field of "all talking films."

Novelty of theme, a "triangle" composed of two strangely contrasting love affairs and an ingeniously planned robbery, are a few of the many features of the picture, and the interwoven threads are brought up to a sharp climax through skillful development of the story.

While "Pleasure Crazed" can be classed as a modernistic drama, it is devoid of the meaningless "trick" shots and cheap backgrounds commonly associated with the term; its modernism lies in a thoroughly up-to-date treatment of contemporary society life with dialogue of excellent clarity and technique.

Three suave "racketeers" evolve a clever scheme to rob a wealthy couple of their jewels. The couple prove, however, to be in complete disagreement with one another's views. The introduction of the wife's lover and of a rebellious member of the trick trio, who finds her sympathies swinging from her associates toward the lonely husband, further serves to complicate matters. Driven to desperation by her spouse's attitude, the wife takes a drastic step to clear up the situation. This step precipitates the exciting climax of a very engrossing picture made from that excellent stage play by Monckton Hoffs, "The Scat of Sweet Almonds."

Marguerite Churchill as the sympathetic crook and Kenneth MacKenna as the husband offer vivid and very human interpretations of their roles. The work of Dorothy Burgess as the wife and of Campbell Gullan and Henry Kolker as the other racketeers is also noteworthy. Donald Gallaher's adroit direction and Clare Kummer's sparkling dialogue and delightful song, "I Only Knew It Was You" are responsible for much of the film's entertainment qualities.
